

Errors & Omissions Coverage for Notaries

A notary mistakenly failed to verify a signer's identity properly during a financial transaction. The signer was later found to have committed fraud resulting in a financial loss and legal action. The notary was sued for negligence. The insurance agent for the notary writer said General Liability insurance does not cover it. Now he is responsible for the loss – but he didn't have to be.

That's why you need Errors and Omissions (E&O) insurance coverage from FoxPro Defender.

- Affordable coverage that protects your business if you are accused of negligence. Rates as low as $625 a year with taxes and fees.
- Provides financial protection if you have to pay a settlement as well as legal expenses.
- Coverage for Foreclosure Services, Paralegals, Skip Tracing Services (Process Servers), and Stenographers (Court Reporters).
- Our carrier Fortegra is rated "A-" (Excellent) A.M. Best for its financial stability and claims-paying ability.

Advocacy defense from nationally recognized law firm Wilson Elser

The financial impact of an E&O claim can wipe out personal and business assets. If the allegations prove to be groundless, you can incur substantial legal fees.

- Wilson Elser specializes in professional liability – unlike most local law firms without its experience.
- Risk Management Hotline to answer your concerns.
- Experienced lawyers work to resolve matters before they become claims.
